This summer our sermon focus will be on "Peace to this House." God longs to fill all of our lives with the gift of Shalom which means "completeness", "flourishing", "perfect health", "harmonious relationships", "contentment", "Godly order" and the list goes on. The meaning of the word "Shalom" is so amazing that it is difficult to describe. God desires to break into the broken areas of our lives and to fill us with increasing measures of His Shalom through Jesus Christ. You are invited to request a group to pray for your home and we will set up a time. God bless all of you with Shalom through Jesus!!!

Summer in the Psalms challenge:

We invite and challenge you to read through the Psalms this summer. This past week we invited you to read Psalms 25-36 and in the coming week we challenge you to read Psalms 37-49. May God bless us in the reading of His Word. Psalm reading schedules are available on the back table.
