Bring these situations to God in prayer:

- ◆ Our youth as they continue to learn and grow from their experiences in Costa Rica.
- ◆ That God would provide a kidney for Jessica Long.
- ◆ God's continued healing for Linda Myers and for her upcoming surgery on July 23.
- ◆ Healing for Sarah Myers who fell and broke her wrist while roller skating.
- ◆ Mag Nolt in the midst of living transitions.
- ◆ Andres, Karina and Drew as they travel to Paraguay where they will meet up with Angelica and her family.
- ◆ J and M and their family as they are living in the 170 house and for the many people they know and love around the world.
- ◆ The students of New Holland Early Learning Center and the gaga ball project.
- ◆ Leaders of Promise Learning Center as they prepare for another school year.

This summer our worship focus is "Peace to this House"; a journey into the Shalom of God! We are learning that Shalom is a Hebrew word in the Bible that means peace, well-being, flourishing, relational prosperity, right-relatedness, Godly order, completeness and the list goes on. The meaning of "Shalom" is so amazing that it is difficult to describe. We know that God wants each of us to experience an abundant outpouring of His Shalom through Jesus Christ! And God desires that each of us become channels of God's Shalom to people around us! May God bless each of our homes, families, neighborhoods and the world around us with the Shalom of Jesus!

Summer in the Psalms challenge:

We continue to invite you to immerse yourself in the Psalms this summer. This next week we encourage you to read Psalms 76-88. Psalm reading schedules are available on the back table.
