2nd Annual Chili Cook-off Competition

Sunday, January 28, 2018

Feel you have a winning Chili recipe? Want to take the title away from last year's winner Janet Martin? Enter our Chili Cookoff competition on Sun, Jan. 28 to see if you can take home the winning prize. We are hoping for ten cookoff contestants. As we did last year, those attending the lunch gathering will be the judges. There will be prizes for the top three. Please contact Glenda Evans or Kathy Frey if you want to participate. For those not entering the contest, we ask if your last name begins A-M to bring a salad (green salads are welcomed) and N-Z bring a dessert.

Check out the children's artwork that is displayed on the bulletin board in the lobby. They colored copies of Dave Moore's sketch that he created for the cover of the Christmas bulletin titled: "The Four Gospels: The Good News of Jesus Christ"

The four animals in Orthodox art represent Christ as:

- ♦ Gospel of Matthew as Lion: The King of the Jews
- ♦ Gospel of Mark as an Ox: The Servant
- ♦ Gospel of Luke as a Man: The Son of Man
- ♦ Gospel of John as a Eagle: The Son of God

The four faces are also seen in the Bible on the Cherubim of Ezekiel and Revelation.

THANK YOU!

CVCCS is pleased to share that the ROOTED program, a mentoring/tutoring program for students in grades 4-6 is thriving! Both mentors and kids are sharing how excited they are to have this opportunity. Pray for these twelve students and the adult mentors.

Stop by the bulletin board and read their January newsletter and see the pictures.
