This summer our worship focus is "Peace to this House"; a journey into the Shalom of God! We are learning that Shalom is a Hebrew word in the Bible that means peace, well-being, flourishing, relational prosperity, right-relatedness, Godly order, completeness and the list goes on. The meaning of "Shalom" is so amazing that it is difficult to describe. We know that God wants each of us to experience an abundant outpouring of His Shalom through Jesus Christ! And God desires that each of us become channels of God's Shalom to people around us! May God bless each of our homes, families, neighborhoods and the world around us with the Shalom of Jesus!

Summer in the Psalms challenge:

We continue to invite you to immerse yourself in the Psalms this summer. This next week we encourage you to read Psalms 63-75. Psalm reading schedules are available on the back table.
