Bring these situations to God in prayer:

- ◆ Fred Reeser at LGH as he battles Corona virus. Pray for God's healing and peace for Fred.
- ◆ Curvin Buchen who experienced a fall in his home last week and broke two ribs. Pray for Curvin as he heals over the next six weeks and that he would experience relief from the excruciating pain.
- ◆ Sharon Eberly that she would experience God's peace.
- ◆ Delores Tennis whose brother, Ronald Groff died unexpectedly of a heart attack earlier this week.
- ◆ Brittany Horst, daughter-in-law of Tim and Donna Horst, who was diagnosed with breast cancer that has spread to her lungs, liver and bones. Brittany and Ben have two children under four years old.
- ◆ Andres and Angelica Prins as they continue to discern their call to serve with EMM in North Africa. Pray also for Andres as he flies to Los Angeles on Saturday afternoon for important meetings with the Spanish mission agency that he helps lead.
- ◆ Our nation during this vulnerable time after a very controversial election. Pray for peace and unity for our country.

November Sermon Series

This morning Pastor Tom begins a November series on "Praying the Psalms." The Psalms are the prayer book of the Bible and offer us words to pray when we don't feel we know what to say to God. The Psalms teach us the attitudes and heart postures that are pleasing to God. In the Psalms we discover that we can be very honest with our feelings to God, without the pressure to clean up and pretend everything is fine. Many Christians throughout the centuries have prayed from the Psalms every day as a way of shaping their prayer life. I'm excited to re-discover this amazing resource in our Scriptures.
