We have decided to re-open the Refugee Assistance Fund to enable support for the Sudanese family in Columbia. Recent legislation has eliminated their eligibility for SNAP benefits, driving up their monthly expenses. We continue to also pray for meaningful work that can provide sufficient income for their needs. Donations to this fund can be made through church offerings by designating your gift to this fund.

Bring to the Lord in prayer:

Pray for Faythe Roberts who is in the hospital with an abdominal infection.

Pray for Marie Hoover as she deals with some recent medical concerns.

Pray for Tanner Eshleman on his mission/service trip to Poland. Tanner's team is teaching English in a school and living with host families.

Pray for our youth group as they begin summer activities and Bible studies.

Pray for Pastor Krista as she brings our message this Sunday.

Pray for our congregation as we share the Lord's Supper this Sunday.

Continue to pray for our congregation during this time of flooring and painting renovations. May we all experience inner transformation to accompany this change in our building.

Pray for Groffdale Leadership Team as they meet on Friday June 5.

SAVE THE DATES!

LMC Assembly 26 will be held at Millersville University June 18-21. Information is posted on the bulletin board outside the All-Purpose room and also on the LMC website. lmcchurches.org/assembly-26. We especially invite you to consider attending on Friday evening June 19 when there will be a hymn sing at 6:30pm led by Stumptown Mennonite Church and a message by EMM President Marvin Lorenzana and Missions Director Lorri Bentch. There is also a worship service on Sunday morning June 21 at 9:00am that you are welcome to attend.
